Two weeks ago, my family and I decided to visit Ferrari World in Abu Dhabi. It was our first time to go there, so we were very excited. We got up early and we arrived at around ten o'clock in the morning and we went on many rides. My son really liked all the race cars because most of the cars were small. At noon, we ate lunch, but we didn't eat much because we wanted to see more things in Ferrari World. Finally, we left and got back home later in the evening. I had the time of my life, and my family did, too!
