Taking an English test isn't fun. Last week, for example, we had a difficult grammar exam. First, I arrived at 8:00, found my desk, and sat down. I put my pens and pencils on my desk, read my textbook for a few minutes, and then the teacher gave us the question papers. I felt really nervous, but I took a deep breath, and told myself to be calm. Then, I began to sweat. Was the classroom too hot? Or was I nervous? I really don't know. Finally, I finished the test thirty minutes later, just before our teacher said, "Time is up!" The next day, I got the test back. I felt quite proud because I got an excellent grade, and I didn't cheat. I studied hard and I got an A+ grade! Perhaps taking a test is fun!
